

Union Dues during the COVID-19 Pandemic

In the midst of this pandemic, we want to take a minute to remind you that we are here for you. As your union, we are addressing members concerns in regards to your Union Dues, in the event of exposure quarantines lasting over a month, contracting the virus and on sick leave or EI, or on layoff due to Companies temporarily closing.

Please contact our dues office and request to pay out of work dues or take out a withdrawal card.

Information about COVID-19 is changing rapidly and there are many questions and concerns about the virus and government measures. We also want to thank all our members who are working on the front lines to ensure the public has the supplies and support they need during this challenging time.

If you have concerns relating to battling COVID-19 at work, this is what you should do:

- 1. Get informed:

If you have questions about the virus or measures that may be applicable to your workplace, please visit the following reliable sites:

BC Centre for Disease Control – COVID-19

WorkSafeBC: COVID-19 & the workplace

BC Government – Pandemic Preparedness

Healthlinkbc

- 2. Talk to your manager or shop steward:

If your questions/concerns are beyond the scope of the sites listed above please be sure to make your shop steward or manager your first point of contact. As this is an evolving situation, it is possible they already have an answer to your concern.

During this challenging time it is important to remain calm and follow public health officials' guidelines to stay safe. We're here to advocate for your well-being, as we have always been.
